

A decorative header for a Valentine's Day menu. It features a large, light pink watercolor-style heart in the center. Inside this heart, the words "Valentine's day" are written in a black, cursive script. Below this, the word "MENU" is written in a gold, sans-serif, all-caps font. The central heart is framed by two thin, concentric gold circles. To the left of the circles is a gold, textured heart, and to the right is a simple gold outline of a heart. The background of the entire page is white, with vertical pink bars on the left and right sides. The right bar has a dotted pattern at the top. There are also some faint pink dots scattered on the left side.
